We would be grateful if you would use the consultation questionnaire or could clearly indicate in your response which questions or parts of the consultation paper you are responding to as this will aid our analysis of the responses received.

The consultation, and all other Scottish Government consultation exercises, can be viewed online on the consultation web pages of the Scottish Government website at <http://www.scotland.gov.uk/Consultations/Current>.

The Scottish Government has an email alert system for consultations, <http://register.scotland.gov.uk>. This system allows stakeholder individuals and organisations to register and receive a weekly email containing details of all new consultations (including web links). It complements, but in no way replaces Scottish Government distribution lists, and is designed to allow stakeholders to keep up to date with all SG consultation activity, and therefore be alerted at the earliest opportunity to those of most interest. We would encourage you to register.

Handling your response

We need to know how you wish your response to be handled and, in particular, whether you are happy for your response to be made public. Please complete and return the Respondent Information Form which forms part of the consultation questionnaire as this will ensure that we treat your response appropriately. If you ask for your response not to be published we will regard it as confidential, and we will treat it accordingly.

All respondents should be aware that the Scottish Government are subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 and would therefore have to consider any request made to it under the Act for information relating to the responses made to this consultation exercise.

Next steps in the process

Where respondents have given permission for their response to be made public and after we have checked that they contain no potentially defamatory material, responses will be made available to the public in the Scottish Government Library (see the attached Respondent Information Form). You can make arrangements to view responses by contacting the Scottish Government Library on 0131 244 4552. Responses can be copied and sent to you, but a charge may be made for this service.

What happens next?

Following the closing date, all responses will be analysed and considered along with any other available evidence to help us finalise the document. We aim to publish the finalised Scottish Planning Policy before the end of 2013.

Comments and complaints

If you have any comments about how this consultation exercise has been conducted, please send them to the contact details above.

The Scottish Government Consultation Process

Consultation is an essential and important aspect of Scottish Government working methods. Given the wide-ranging areas of work of the Scottish Government, there are many varied types of consultation. However, in general, Scottish Government consultation exercises aim to provide opportunities for all those who wish to express their opinions on a proposed area of work to do so in ways which will inform and enhance that work.

The Scottish Government encourages consultation that is thorough, effective and appropriate to the issue under consideration and the nature of the target audience. Consultation exercises take account of a wide range of factors, and no two exercises are likely to be the same.

Typically Scottish Government consultations involve a written paper inviting answers to specific questions or more general views about the material presented. Consultation documents are placed on the Scottish Government web site enabling a wider audience to access the papers and submit their responses<sup>1</sup>. Consultation exercises may also involve seeking views in a number of different ways, such as through public meetings, focus groups or questionnaire exercises. Copies of all the written responses received to a consultation exercise (except those where the individual or organisation request confidentiality) are placed in the Scottish Government library at Saughton House, Edinburgh (K Spur, Saughton House, Broomhouse Drive, Edinburgh, EH11 3XD, telephone 0131 244 4565).

The views and suggestions detailed in consultation response are analysed and used as part of the decision making process, along with a range of other available information and evidence. Depending on the nature of the consultation exercise the responses received may:

Draft Scottish Planning Policy : Consultation Questionnaire

- indicate the need for policy development or review
- inform the development of a particular policy
- help decisions to be made between alternative policy proposals
- be used to finalise legislation before it is implemented

Final decisions on the issues under consideration will also take account of a range of other factors, including other available information and research evidence.

While details of particular circumstances described in a response to a consultation exercise may usefully inform the policy process, consultation exercises cannot address individual concerns and comments, which should be directed to the relevant public body.

Patterns of rural development will have an impact on future traffic and transport demand. Consideration should be given to whether a development will generate a demand in the future for public transport services, and the likelihood of this demand being able to be met.

BUILDINGS

- 6 Housing Y N
Do you think explaining a 'generous' housing land supply as allowing an additional margin of 10 to 20%, as set out in paragraph 85, is the appropriate approach?
An alternative would be to state that a generosity factor should be added to the land supply, and that this may be smaller in areas where there can be confidence that the sites identified in the plan will be developed in the plan period, and larger in areas where there is less confidence in the deliverability of the land supply. Do you think this is the appropriate approach?
- 7 Housing Y N
Do you think that authorities should be able to include an allowance for windfall development in their calculations for meeting the housing land requirement, as set out in paragraph 86?
- 8 Housing Y
As set out in paragraph 87, do you think strategic development plans should set out the housing supply target:
a. only for the strategic development area as a whole;
b. for the individual local authority areas;
c. for the various housing market areas that make up the strategic development plan area; or
d. a combination of the above
- 9 Housing Y N
Do you think the approach to how national parks address their housing land requirements, as set out in paragraph 90, is the appropriate approach?
An alternative would be for national park authorities to assess and meet housing requirements in full within their areas. Do you think this is the appropriate approach?

10 Housing

Y N

Do you think the approach to identifying the five year effective land supply, as set out in paragraph 91, is the appropriate approach?

An alternative approach would be for the supply in strategic development plan areas to be calculated across local development plan areas. This would require strategic development plans to set out housing supply targets for each local development plan. Do you think this is the appropriate approach?

11 Housing

Y N

Do you think that the level of affordable housing required as part of a housing development should generally be no more than 25%, as set out in paragraph 97?

12 Housing

Y N

Do you think that the approach to addressing particular housing needs, as outlined in paragraphs 100 to 103, is appropriate?

13 Business & Employment

Y N

Do you think the regular review of marketable sites for business, as set out in paragraph 110, should take the form of 'business land audits' in order to ensure identified sites are marketable?

NATURAL RESOURCES

14 Green Infrastructure

Y N

Do you think that the provision of green infrastructure in new development should be design-led and based on the place, as set out in paragraph 163?

An alternative would be to continue with a standards based approach. Do you think this is the appropriate approach?

UTILITIES

15 Heat & Electricity

Y N

With reference to paragraphs 214 to 215, do you think heat networks should be developed ahead of the availability of renewable or low carbon sources of heat? An alternative would be for heat networks to only happen where there are existing renewable and waste heat sources or networks. Do you think this is the appropriate approach?

16 Heat & Electricity

Y N

With reference to paragraph 218 and subsequent groups, do you think that the proposed increased community separation distance of up to 2.5km is appropriate?

17 Heat & Electricity

Y N

With reference to paragraphs 216 to 219, do you think the proposed approach to spatial frameworks achieves the right balance between supporting onshore wind development whilst protecting the natural environment and managing visual impacts on communities?

There is concern that the proposed approach will increase pressure for developments within non-designated landscapes, and Dumfries & Galloway's landscape would not be protected. The region's landscape is an important asset in relation to tourism development, particularly in relation to tourist travel routes such as long-distance cycle routes, and rural rail routes. It is important that the policy should not cause significant adverse impact from windfarms on these landscape assets. Increased emphasis is required to give more weight to landscape capacity studies for wind energy.

18 Heat & Electricity

Y N

Do you think the SPP could do even more than is drafted in paragraphs 222 to 224 to secure community benefits from renewable energy developments while respecting the principles of impartiality and transparency within the planning system?

Scottish Planning Policy should ensure that the landscape impacts of windfarm developments are reflected in a community benefit policy that allows communities to realise a sustainable and lasting legacy from developments. The policy should encourage strategic and joined up approaches to community benefit. In deep rural rail corridors there is potential for a community benefit policy to support community involvement in the railway through Community Rail Partnerships.

19 Digital

Do you think the planning system should promote provision for broadband infrastructure (such as ducting and fibre) in new developments so it is designed and installed as an integral part of development, as set out in paragraph 230?

Yes. Provision of digital infrastructure is a key element of long term transport planning, reducing the negative impacts of traffic growth by reducing the need to travel.

20 Flooding & Drainage

Do you think that Strategic Flood Risk Assessment should inform the location of development, as set out in paragraph 239?

21 Flooding & Drainage

With reference to paragraphs 245 to 247, do you think that where the Scottish Environmental Protection Agency (SEPA) has already granted a Controlled Activities Regulations (CAR) license then there should be no need for consideration of water and drainage issues by the planning system?

22 Reducing & Managing Waste

With reference to paragraphs 248 to 262, do you think that planning policy for waste management should be consolidated into the SPP to be clear on the messages and to remove the need for further narrative in Annex B of the Zero Waste Plan?
